

WATERBOY'S STALL IS CAREFULLY PADLOCKED

His Failure to Meet McChesney the Most Deliberate Crawl in the History of Metropolitan Turf—Method in Holding Him for Brighton Cup.

There were some who entertained a lingering hope that at the last moment yesterday Waterboy would be added to the First Special at Gravesend. Not a chance.

While McChesney is around Waterboy's stall will be double padlocked for fear the Westerner will get in at him and chase him out to race.

Waterboy is in a glass case just now and will stay there until he starts in the Brighton Cup. There he will earn a reputation for staying powers because he will meet a lot of selling platers that any fair horse could beat.

Then Waterboy will be retired to the stud.

Not as Great Horse.

As a great race horse with an untarnished reputation? Not by a long shot. As the horse on whom all the East based their hopes of taking McChesney's scalp, and as the horse which put Easterners into a position where the whole West is chuckling at them.

Strange Waterboy's owner didn't plan out his easy campaign for him before McChesney showed that he was good. McChesney's galloping win in the First Special yesterday will make Waterboy shrink further back in his stall.

He may blunder around the track in the morning and his owner and trainer may assume an attitude of contemptuous disdain for McChesney, but the public knows what to think about the black horse.

A Deliberate Crawl.

Such a deliberate and undignified crawl has never before been made a bit of turf history.

But what's the use dealing with such a subject in this sort of weather? Give Waterboy his Brighton Cup and let him retire to the woods with it. Let horses of courage and gameness, able to meet all comers, win the plaudits of the people.

Highball has been retired, but he has a warm spot in the hearts of the people. His game-races have earned for him the title of champion two-year-old, and it is one to be proud of. In the Junior Champion yesterday Highball clinched his title, and it was a pity that he could not have met and defeated Hamburg Belle.

The latter, however, is recovering from her injuries in the Futurity, but the chances are even if she had been sound and fit she would have dodged Highball in the same way that Waterboy has McChesney.

She is owned by the same people. But the fact that she was hurt gives her an excuse, and the claim will probably be made that she, and not Highball, is the best two-year-old of the year.

As a great race horse with an untarnished reputation? Not by a long shot. As the horse on whom all the East based their hopes of taking McChesney's scalp, and as the horse which put Easterners into a position where the whole West is chuckling at them.

Strange Waterboy's owner didn't plan out his easy campaign for him before McChesney showed that he was good. McChesney's galloping win in the First Special yesterday will make Waterboy shrink further back in his stall.

He may blunder around the track in the morning and his owner and trainer may assume an attitude of contemptuous disdain for McChesney, but the public knows what to think about the black horse.

A Deliberate Crawl.

Such a deliberate and undignified crawl has never before been made a bit of turf history.

But what's the use dealing with such a subject in this sort of weather? Give Waterboy his Brighton Cup and let him retire to the woods with it. Let horses of courage and gameness, able to meet all comers, win the plaudits of the people.

Highball has been retired, but he has a warm spot in the hearts of the people. His game-races have earned for him the title of champion two-year-old, and it is one to be proud of. In the Junior Champion yesterday Highball clinched his title, and it was a pity that he could not have met and defeated Hamburg Belle.

The latter, however, is recovering from her injuries in the Futurity, but the chances are even if she had been sound and fit she would have dodged Highball in the same way that Waterboy has McChesney.

She is owned by the same people. But the fact that she was hurt gives her an excuse, and the claim will probably be made that she, and not Highball, is the best two-year-old of the year.

As a great race horse with an untarnished reputation? Not by a long shot. As the horse on whom all the East based their hopes of taking McChesney's scalp, and as the horse which put Easterners into a position where the whole West is chuckling at them.

Strange Waterboy's owner didn't plan out his easy campaign for him before McChesney showed that he was good. McChesney's galloping win in the First Special yesterday will make Waterboy shrink further back in his stall.

He may blunder around the track in the morning and his owner and trainer may assume an attitude of contemptuous disdain for McChesney, but the public knows what to think about the black horse.

A Deliberate Crawl.

Such a deliberate and undignified crawl has never before been made a bit of turf history.

But what's the use dealing with such a subject in this sort of weather? Give Waterboy his Brighton Cup and let him retire to the woods with it. Let horses of courage and gameness, able to meet all comers, win the plaudits of the people.

Highball has been retired, but he has a warm spot in the hearts of the people. His game-races have earned for him the title of champion two-year-old, and it is one to be proud of. In the Junior Champion yesterday Highball clinched his title, and it was a pity that he could not have met and defeated Hamburg Belle.

The latter, however, is recovering from her injuries in the Futurity, but the chances are even if she had been sound and fit she would have dodged Highball in the same way that Waterboy has McChesney.

She is owned by the same people. But the fact that she was hurt gives her an excuse, and the claim will probably be made that she, and not Highball, is the best two-year-old of the year.

As a great race horse with an untarnished reputation? Not by a long shot. As the horse on whom all the East based their hopes of taking McChesney's scalp, and as the horse which put Easterners into a position where the whole West is chuckling at them.

Strange Waterboy's owner didn't plan out his easy campaign for him before McChesney showed that he was good. McChesney's galloping win in the First Special yesterday will make Waterboy shrink further back in his stall.

He may blunder around the track in the morning and his owner and trainer may assume an attitude of contemptuous disdain for McChesney, but the public knows what to think about the black horse.

IRISH LAD IS UP TO A RACE

Brooklyn Handicap Winner, Well Ridden by a Stable Boy, Goes a Neat Mile and a Quarter at Sheepshead.

Good training weather held sway at the Sheepshead course this morning during the work hours. The track was in perfect condition, and the runners had no trouble in stepping over it in creditable time.

Trainer J. W. Rogers, of the W. C. Whitney string, sent Irish Lad a rousing good mile and a quarter at something better than a two minute clip. The lad that had the leg up was evidently riding to orders, and he proved such a perfect picture of pace that he clipped off the furlongs in 1:41.2 and 1:5 with the utmost regularity. The race is quite good just now, and quite ready to meet his engagements.

Roanoke covered six furlongs in 1:20. J. R. & F. P. Keene's Wizard reeled off the six furlongs route in 1:18.2. Ambrose breezed a quarter in 27. Stolen Moments galloped a mile in 1:45.

F. Gebhardt's Gold Drop covered six furlongs in 1:19.2. Cottage Maid turned a mile in 1:47. R. T. Wilson's Highlander reeled off a mile and a quarter in 2:07. Drake's Wyeth was sent a mile in 1:44.

James Galway's Beverly clipped off a mile in 1:44. S. S. Brown's Hands Across covered a mile and a quarter in 2:18.

The latter, however, is recovering from her injuries in the Futurity, but the chances are even if she had been sound and fit she would have dodged Highball in the same way that Waterboy has McChesney.

She is owned by the same people. But the fact that she was hurt gives her an excuse, and the claim will probably be made that she, and not Highball, is the best two-year-old of the year.

As a great race horse with an untarnished reputation? Not by a long shot. As the horse on whom all the East based their hopes of taking McChesney's scalp, and as the horse which put Easterners into a position where the whole West is chuckling at them.

Strange Waterboy's owner didn't plan out his easy campaign for him before McChesney showed that he was good. McChesney's galloping win in the First Special yesterday will make Waterboy shrink further back in his stall.

He may blunder around the track in the morning and his owner and trainer may assume an attitude of contemptuous disdain for McChesney, but the public knows what to think about the black horse.

A Deliberate Crawl.

Such a deliberate and undignified crawl has never before been made a bit of turf history.

But what's the use dealing with such a subject in this sort of weather? Give Waterboy his Brighton Cup and let him retire to the woods with it. Let horses of courage and gameness, able to meet all comers, win the plaudits of the people.

Highball has been retired, but he has a warm spot in the hearts of the people. His game-races have earned for him the title of champion two-year-old, and it is one to be proud of. In the Junior Champion yesterday Highball clinched his title, and it was a pity that he could not have met and defeated Hamburg Belle.

The latter, however, is recovering from her injuries in the Futurity, but the chances are even if she had been sound and fit she would have dodged Highball in the same way that Waterboy has McChesney.

She is owned by the same people. But the fact that she was hurt gives her an excuse, and the claim will probably be made that she, and not Highball, is the best two-year-old of the year.

As a great race horse with an untarnished reputation? Not by a long shot. As the horse on whom all the East based their hopes of taking McChesney's scalp, and as the horse which put Easterners into a position where the whole West is chuckling at them.

Strange Waterboy's owner didn't plan out his easy campaign for him before McChesney showed that he was good. McChesney's galloping win in the First Special yesterday will make Waterboy shrink further back in his stall.

He may blunder around the track in the morning and his owner and trainer may assume an attitude of contemptuous disdain for McChesney, but the public knows what to think about the black horse.

A Deliberate Crawl.

Such a deliberate and undignified crawl has never before been made a bit of turf history.

But what's the use dealing with such a subject in this sort of weather? Give Waterboy his Brighton Cup and let him retire to the woods with it. Let horses of courage and gameness, able to meet all comers, win the plaudits of the people.

Highball has been retired, but he has a warm spot in the hearts of the people. His game-races have earned for him the title of champion two-year-old, and it is one to be proud of. In the Junior Champion yesterday Highball clinched his title, and it was a pity that he could not have met and defeated Hamburg Belle.

The latter, however, is recovering from her injuries in the Futurity, but the chances are even if she had been sound and fit she would have dodged Highball in the same way that Waterboy has McChesney.

She is owned by the same people. But the fact that she was hurt gives her an excuse, and the claim will probably be made that she, and not Highball, is the best two-year-old of the year.

As a great race horse with an untarnished reputation? Not by a long shot. As the horse on whom all the East based their hopes of taking McChesney's scalp, and as the horse which put Easterners into a position where the whole West is chuckling at them.

Strange Waterboy's owner didn't plan out his easy campaign for him before McChesney showed that he was good. McChesney's galloping win in the First Special yesterday will make Waterboy shrink further back in his stall.

He may blunder around the track in the morning and his owner and trainer may assume an attitude of contemptuous disdain for McChesney, but the public knows what to think about the black horse.

A Deliberate Crawl.

Such a deliberate and undignified crawl has never before been made a bit of turf history.

But what's the use dealing with such a subject in this sort of weather? Give Waterboy his Brighton Cup and let him retire to the woods with it. Let horses of courage and gameness, able to meet all comers, win the plaudits of the people.

Highball has been retired, but he has a warm spot in the hearts of the people. His game-races have earned for him the title of champion two-year-old, and it is one to be proud of. In the Junior Champion yesterday Highball clinched his title, and it was a pity that he could not have met and defeated Hamburg Belle.

The latter, however, is recovering from her injuries in the Futurity, but the chances are even if she had been sound and fit she would have dodged Highball in the same way that Waterboy has McChesney.

She is owned by the same people. But the fact that she was hurt gives her an excuse, and the claim will probably be made that she, and not Highball, is the best two-year-old of the year.

As a great race horse with an untarnished reputation? Not by a long shot. As the horse on whom all the East based their hopes of taking McChesney's scalp, and as the horse which put Easterners into a position where the whole West is chuckling at them.

Ask Your Doctor About Alcohol in Liquid Kidney Remedies.

CHAS. F. ORR CURED OF LAME BACK OF 12 YEARS' STANDING.

Two months ago Charles F. Orr, 239 Boston street, Lynn, Mass., wrote: "I have been subject to lameness in my back for 10 or 12 years. I tried Dr. Pettigill's Kidney-Wort Tablets and was relieved immediately. By the time I had taken the whole of the first bottle the ache was gone entirely. I have not been troubled since."

"Hospitals use Kidney-Wort Tablets because they contain no alcohol—a serious objection in the mind of every physician to the use of liquid kidney remedies. It is the one remedy that thoroughly cures jaundice, gallstones, migraines, chills and fevers, debility, constipation, gravel, diabetes, rheumatic pains due to excessive uric acid, and the headaches and dyspepsia that are brought on by clogged kidneys."

Has your urine, your back, your general health led you to wonder if your kidneys are sound? Write Dr. Pettigill, Burlington, Vt. Give him your symptoms; he will advise you free.

DR. PETTINGILL'S

Kidney-Wort Tablets

Non-Alcoholic, Concentrated, Easy-to-take.

CANCEROUS ULCERS ROOTED IN THE BLOOD.

After the age of 45 or 50, when the vital powers are naturally weaker, it is noticed that a hurt of any kind heals slowly and often a very insignificant scratch or bruise becomes a bad ulcer or sore. At this time of life warty

A small pimple came on my jaw, but gave me no pain or inconvenience, and I should have forgotten about it had it not begun to inflame and itch; it was a fair trial, and it is remarkable what a wonderful effect it had from the beginning; the sore began to heal and after taking a few bottles disappeared entirely. It was two years ago; there are still no signs of the Cancer and my general health continues good. Mrs. R. SHIRER, Wyandotte, Mo.

Whenever a sore or ulcer is slow in healing then you may be sure something is radically wrong with your blood. Some old taint or poison that has been slumbering there for years is beginning to assert itself, and breaks out and becomes a bad ulcer and perhaps the beginning of Cancer. These old sores are rooted in the blood, and while washes, soaps, salves, etc., keep the surface clean, they are not healing. A blood medicine to purify and strengthen the polluted blood and a tonic to build up the general system is what is needed, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy. No poison is so powerful and no germ so deadly that this great vegetable blood remedy cannot reach it, and ulcers of every kind quickly yield to its wonderful curative properties. If you have an old sore or ulcer, write us all about it. No charge for medical advice. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

GAMMEYER STAMPED ON A SHOE MEANS STANDARD OF MERIT.

It Is Easy to Secure the BEST Shoes, for All That Is Necessary Is to Come to Our Store.

The best live oak soles and best tanned uppers, the best workmanship, the best finish and the best styles, are only found combined in our shoes.

We sell the most shoe value for the money. Take our

"Harvard" $3.00 Shoe for Men and "Standard" $3.00 Shoe for Women

They are as good as any $3.50 and $4.00 Shoes sold elsewhere.

Men's "Harvard," Women's "Standard," button, lace, Blucher and Oxfords, in all leathers; high and low cut.

Fall Styles Now Ready.

Catalogue Mailed Free on Application.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

WOMAN AFIRE IN A BLAZING AUTO

First Use of Motor Car Cause of Severe Burns for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, the Tank Exploding.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Raymond, of No. 110 Fortieth street, Brooklyn, are congratulating them on their miraculous escape from death when their auto exploded. Although both were painfully burned, their injuries are not serious.

The machine was a new one, and Mrs. Raymond was out for her first spin. They were driving along Ocean Parkway, and Mr. Raymond noticed that the machinery did not work smoothly. He attributed it to the newness of the machine.

The tank exploded at the junction of the Parkway and the street. The machine, with its occupants, was lifted several feet into the air, and when it came down was a mass of flames, darting forward at great increased speed. The flames crept nearer and nearer to Mrs. Raymond, until her clothing caught fire, and Mr. Raymond had difficulty in stopping the machine. When he did stop, he took off his coat and threw it around his wife, smothering the flames.

An ambulance and the fire department were called. The auto was a total wreck, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond went to their homes in a car. Their burns were cared for by the ambulance surgeon.

WOMEN CROWD TO SEE NEW THINGS IN GOWNS.

Simpson Crawford Company's Fall Opening Marked by a Marvellous Display of Color.

Feminine "Ohs" and "Ahs," and even masculine expressions of admiration were heard on all sides to-day at the Simpson Crawford Company fall opening.

The entire store wore a gala appearance, and music from four orchestras stationed on the different floors made the grand display of fall hats and garments one of the most elaborate fashion receptions ever held in the city.

The military display alone surpasses anything ever attempted, while the imported costumes and the dress of the day are of heavy wool lace. The display effect is shown on the bodice. This modest, light creation sells for $85.

Pastel shades predominate. Pastel shades are the predominating tints in the display of gowns, blues, pinks and yellows blending with grays and whites.

A Douillet creation of Irish and Spanish lace is one of the most beautiful gowns on exhibition. The dress is of white and is trimmed in Havana brown chiffon and mink fur. The long line effect is carried out in the garment, which is one of the unique designs of the display.

For afternoon gowns the pastel tints and purples are popular, while Havana brown holds the sway as for street garments. The lingerie effect is noticeable in coats, and one garment of mink, made with the trimmings of the popular velvet with the lingerie cuff or valen-tinienne lace and chiffon. The minkskin coat is one of the most popular creations shown. A bodice of gray suede, studded with steel, is made under the three-tier effect.

Delighted with Hats.

The feminine eye which delights in hats has its reward in the Simpson Crawford Company's display. The new purple shade, mulberry, the rich red color, corn flower blue, are in separate displays, while the popular brown shades intermingle everywhere.

A brand-new feature, which called forth many exclamations from women, is the shape of the crowns this year. Oblong crowns are the fashion, and one imported Eugene Bloem hat in brown, plaited velvet with sable edge, not only has the oblong crown, but is going to sell.

A spray of white roses and velvet green foliage falls gracefully across the brim.

Beaver is distinctly popular this year, and for street wear turbans made from strips of beaver are the thing. Plumes are more popular than ever, but the position of the big feather has changed and is worn at the back of the hat.

A few picture hats are shown, but the hat effects and turbans in rich brunelles, mulberry and corn flower blues with the brown predominance. The hats this year are unusually beautiful, and the military department of Simpson Crawford Company was thronged all day with admiring women.

THIEF BOUND AND GAGGED HIMSELF

Railroad Telegrapher Robbed Station and Then Fixed Up a Burglary Story, Which the Detectives Exploded.

MEDINA, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Detectives of the New York Central Railroad worked all day on the robbery at the railroad station here. The sensational details of which, as given by Railroad Telegrapher Brown, who was in charge of the office, created a big stir in this vicinity.

Brown, who was found bound and gagged, told the police that he had been knocked senseless by a man who pretended he wanted to send a message. The telegrapher continued that when he recovered consciousness he found himself tied and a handkerchief stuffed into his mouth, while the papers and railroad tickets in the office were scattered about on the floor.

The burglars had gone, he said, and he was therefore unable to describe them. He heroically worked on the case, until he concluded that Brown had not told the truth and questioned him persistently, until he broke down and confessed that he had stolen the money and tramped up the sensational story. He scattered the contents of the office safe about the station, he said, and then gagged and bound the officers out into the country to a spot where he had hidden $400 he had stolen. The money was found intact.

The prisoner waived examination and was held for the Grand Jury.

He has heretofore borne good reputation. It is believed he had become dissatisfied with his small salary as telegrapher. He is twenty-five years old.

With the departure of Richard Griswold Hill Pond, brother of Charles H. Pond, cashier of J. P. Morgan & Co., who will seek to recover his health in California, the announcement of his secret marriage to Miss Mary Emily Klink is made. The ceremony was performed on Feb. 14, unknown to all but a very few of their most intimate friends.